

About the Author:

Born in the Bible Belt of the South, the author was raised in a loving, faith-filled home where church life was a way of life. He began working at 16 and later built a fulfilling career with the California Department of Corrections, retiring in 2017.

He holds a B.A. in Theology, an M.A. in Christian Counseling, an Honorary Doctorate of Divinity, and a Ph.D. in African American Military Studies. Deeply devoted to ministry, he has served in Men's, Marriage, and Life Group Ministries at Cross City Church since 2020 and is President/CEO of Man 2 Man Ministries.

His journey reflects a lifelong commitment to faith, service, and helping others find healing and purpose through Christ.

“May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. Amen.”
— 2 Corinthians 13:14

About the Book:

In today's society, spiritual beliefs and truths are viewed with a sense of non-importance or no great concern. In the culture today, the truth is sometimes avoided, downplayed, if not totally denied. Living conditions, morals, and creating a legacy for our kids and grandkids have been put aside, with more focus on “me,” the now, and self-satisfaction. We are witnessing a world of change today in a culture that is running from God and chasing its own beliefs.

And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth and that every imagination and thought of the heart was continually evil. — Genesis 6:5 And this is the plan: at the right time, He will bring everything together under the authority of Christ—everything in Heaven and on Earth. — Ephesians 1:10
